

WorldKind's Scottish Restaurant List

Dining Out in Stirling

Stirling has an abundance of spectacular restaurants from traditional Scottish to Indian and Thai. Here is a list of places to try:

Brea Restaurant - Nice and relaxed Scottish restaurant in the heart of Stirling, serving local produce freshly made-to-order including gourmet burgers, seafood, steak, haggis, craft beers, ales, and ciders. Trip Advisor $$-$$$

Maharaja - Maharaja Stirling is the top and best Indian restaurant in Stirling, Scotland. Rated as the UK's most popular restaurant in Scotland. Authentic Indian Cuisine. Trip Advisor $$

Sida Thai - An excellent Thai restaurant in Stirling, if you fancy something a little more exotic. Trip Advisor $$

Cronies Bar and Restaurant - Cronies Bar is tucked inside a stunning 18th-century building as memorable as any of the poems penned by Scotland's national bard, Robbie Burns, who wined and dined here with his cronies in 1787. Trip Advisor $$

The Portcullis - Best steaks in town. Trip Advisor $$

Mamma Mia - A pizzeria that serves artisan pizzas with the finest and freshest ingredients. Trip Advisor $$

Dining out in St Andrews

Seafood Ristorante - They use locally sourced and sustainable produce, supplied fresh daily, to create beautiful and delicious plates which are elevated with an inspired Italian twist. Trip Advisor $$$

Cromar's Fish and Chips - Established in St. Andrew's in 2013, Cromars serves high quality, fresh produce. We pride ourselves in serving the best fish supper accompanied by our homemade tartare sauce, mushy peas and wedge of lemon. This is all prepared by our fantastic and friendly team. Trip Advisor $

The Adamson - The heart of St Andrews at 127 South Street, The Adamson is the perfect place to eat, drink and socialise. Throughout 2022, The Adamson creates a set of seasonal menus as part of the restaurant's dedication to using the freshest ingredients and commitment to sustainability and provenance with our suppliers. Trip Advisor $$-$$$

Jahangir - The award-winning tandoori restaurant set in the heart of St Andrews, where you will find the best of Indian cuisine combined with excellent service and a relaxed atmosphere. Trip Advisor $$

Hatch - Modern tapas doesn't need to be complicated but it does need great produce, great flavours and great care. That's exactly the spirit we want to bring to St Andrews. We look forward to welcoming you along for the ride. $$

St Andrews Brewing Company - This pub sources the best local produce for their beer and food, whilst creating a memorable experience for everyone. $$

Fisher & Donaldson - They are a Royal Warrant-holding fifth generation family bakery specialising in traditional, handmade goods including our world famous fudge doughnut, Dr Floyd bread and Fife hand-cut oatcakes. $

"Pubbing" Out in Pitlochry

McKays Where WorldKind will be staying this summer! McKays is a traditional Scottish hotel, bar, and restaurant serving local produce, ales, premium spirits, and live entertainment every weekend. Trip Advisor Reviews $$

The Old Mill Inn (pub) The Old Mill Inn claims to "offer a menu to delight every palate." Family-owned and run 4-star accommodation in Pitlochry, alongside a lively bistro & bar atmosphere. Winners of Scottish Hotel Awards & Best Bar in Scotland. Trip Advisor Reviews $$

Fern Cottage Restaurant Fern Cottage Restaurant is a local favourite located in Pitlochry, Highland Perthshire offering great Scottish and Mediterranean food and service all year round. Trip Advisor Reviews $$

Auld Smiddy Inn (pub) The name alone should be enough to draw you inside this old Blacksmith forge, which still retains the shell of its 1900s building while boasting a fresh contemporary design inside. Open starting 11 am to serve teas and coffees, by mid-afternoon you can enjoy sandwiches and fresh Scottish Haddock sitting by a fire inside or outside (weather permitting) in their garden. Trip Advisor Reviews $$

Moulin Inn (pub) An atmospheric pub with its own adjacent Moulin Brewery about a mile outside Pitlochry that's been a popular choice with locals for over three centuries. It boasts of old fireplaces and beautiful stone walls that offer plenty of cosy niches where you can enjoy a large selection of malt whiskies Trip Advisor Reviews $$

Restaurants to try in Edinburgh

Traditional Scottish Food

The Witchery by the Castle -Dine in the rich baroque surroundings of the original oak-panelled Original dining room or among the elegant candle-lit charms of the Secret Garden dining room. Trip Advisor $$$

Makar's Mash -Makars Mash Bar is the first restaurant to say NO to deep fat fryers, artificial this and that, and YES to delicious healthy, locally produced food like my granny used to cook. And my goodness she was one hell of a cook ! Trip Advisor $$

Pibroch - Pibroch is a family run restaurant in the heart of Edinburgh. Pibroch or 'Piobaireachd' simply means 'piping' in Gaelic and we offer traditional Scottish food and a wide range of drinks, including Scottish spirits and ciders. Trip Advisor $$-$$$

The Piper's Rest - We carry a great selection of malt whiskies, local gins and an eclectic range of craft beers. Our cocktails are fun and tasty! If you're hungry, our food menu consists entirely of Scottish favourites and we use locally sourced ingredients where possible. Think your Granny's kitchen! Trip Advisor $$

Fine Dining

Forage and Chatter - A dining experience offering locally sourced Scottish cuisine, hidden in Edinburgh's West End. Trip Advisor $$-$$$

The Kitchin -The Kitchin presents modern British cuisine, influenced by French cooking techniques and an appreciation of the best quality ingredients available from Scotland's fantastic natural larder. Trip Advisor $$$

Cannonball Restaurant & Bar -The finest Scottish dining and bar in the heart of the Old Town, with fabulous views of Edinburgh Castle. Trip Advisor $$$

Afternoon Tea and Sandwiches

Colonnades at the Signet Library - Located in the heart of Edinburgh's Old Town on the Royal Mile, Colonnades at the Signet Library is the perfect place for 'Edinburgh's finest afternoon tea' and delicious cocktails and fizz. Whether it's a birthday, anniversary, graduation or 'just because', there aren't enough reasons to visit us! Trip Advisor $$$

Palm Court - for the royalty who have called Edinburgh home for centuries, the menu features a sumptuous selection of loose-leaf teas (pleasingly poured table side), fresh pastries, dainty sandwiches and expertly crafted savouries, as well as a beguiling selection of Champagnes. Trip Advisor $$$

Peacock Alley at the Caledonian Hotel - Located in the heart of the hotel, the stylish sophistication of the new Peacock Alley will re-connect to all the glamour and traditions of the original Waldorf & Astoria Hotels in New York. The classic place to be, from morning to night. A comfortable lounge for residents to treat as their own, for breakfast, light lunch or afternoon tea. Trip Advisor $$

Ice Cream

Mary's Milk Bar - Mary's Milk Bar is a cosy space for you to enjoy the best quality gelato and chocolate. Mary makes the ice cream every morning until 11am so there are fresh, every-changing flavours to sample. This also means that the choice of flavours changes every single day and can even sell out in the summer months – you better get down there early! Trip Advisor $

Mackie's of Scotland - They began making ice cream in 1986, and have launched over 220 products and made over 1000 flavours. Deliciously smooth, fresh & creamy. Enjoy the pure taste of Mackie's Traditional Real Dairy Ice Cream made with the natural goodness of fresh milk & cream using renewable energy, all produced here on our family farm in Aberdeenshire. Just taste and we think you'll agree, nature is a wonderful thing. Trip Advisor $